Father Michael T. Martin to Become Fifth Bishop of Charlotte ~ From: The Catholic News Herald ~

The Diocese of Charlotte today announced that longtime Bishop Peter J. Jugis, 67, is retiring due to health limitations, and that Pope Francis has appointed Father Michael T. Martin, OFM Conv., of Atlanta, as his successor to lead the growing diocese.

Bishop Jugis submitted his request for retirement to Rome last June, saying a chronic but non-life-threatening kidney condition made it difficult for him to preside over lengthy liturgies and travel across the 46 counties of the expansive diocese. Bishop Jugis recently celebrated his 20th anniversary as bishop and 40th anniversary as a priest. He will serve as administrator of the diocese until May when Bishop-Elect Martin is installed, then will continue to assist the diocese as Bishop Emeritus.

Bishop-Elect Martin, 62, is a priest of the Order of Friars Minor Conventual and serves as pastor of St. Philip Benizi Parish in Jonesboro, Georgia. He has deep roots in Catholic education – having served as a teacher, coach and school administrator in Baltimore, New York and Durham – and arrives at a time of record enrollment in the Diocese of Charlotte's 20 schools.

He will be ordained and installed as the fifth Bishop of Charlotte on May 29 at St. Mark Catholic Church in Huntersville.

"I am amazed and humbled that the Holy Father has faith in me to call me to serve the people of Western North Carolina," Bishop-Elect Martin said. "I am excited to get to know you and to listen to the ways in which together we can respond to the call of the Holy Spirit to be disciples of Jesus."

Bishop Jugis introduced Bishop-Elect Martin at a news conference Tuesday morning. Cardinal Christophe Pierre, the Vatican's apostolic nuncio (ambassador) to the United States, publicized the appointment early Tuesday in Washington, D.C. Bishop-Elect Martin answered a variety of questions about his new role leading the diocese, from aiding the poor & marginalized, to future goals of continuing to shepherd growth among parishes and schools.

"To the faithful Catholics spread across 92 parishes and missions, I can't wait to come to be with you, to listen to your story of discipleship, and to know how best I can serve you," Bishop-Elect Martin said during the news conference. "To the many priests, deacons and religious who walk with their lay brothers and sisters on the journey, I pledge my heart to you."

Today's Readings

1st Reading: He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no other name under heaven by which we are to be saved than the name of Jesus Christ, the Nazorean .. (Acts 4:8-12).

2nd Reading: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God (1 John 3:1-2).

Gospel: I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father ... There will be one flock and one shepherd....(Jn 10:11-18).
